Discover Drenthe

Naturally, you know Drenthe for the unspoiled nature and the 'hunebedden' (prehistoric passage graves). And naturally you know that Assen – which is famous for the TT – is our lively provincial capital city. But do you also know that De Bonte Wever is situated next to one of the oldest woods in the Netherlands: the Asserbos? That the recreation area, De Baggelhuizerplas, where you can sunbathe and swim when it's nice weather, lies in the direct vicinity of the hotel? That you can walk for hours (don't forget your picnic basket!) through ancient woods without seeing anybody? Or that theme parks, museums, shops, theatres and zoo are just around the corner? Drenthe treats you to memorable experiences in all shapes and sizes. For the kids. For yourself. And for all your friends and (business) partners.
